Miss C Tindale

SENDCo

I am here to make sure that you are supported but also that you develop into an independent and skilled young adult regardless of any barriers to your learning you may have.

Miss E Oldham

Assistant SENDCo

I am here to help you become the best that you can be and support you with your future goals. I am also here to listen to you and guide you, when it is needed.

Mrs N Benson

Learning Support Assistant

I will support you to become the best possible version of yourself. I will praise the good days and support you through the difficult ones. Together we will achieve your goals and break down any barriers.

Miss E Cowlishaw

Learning Support Assistant

I can help you to understand your timetable and the different times of the school day. I will explain expectations within the school and classroom and help you to achieve these. I will also help you to achieve your own personal goals within your subjects.

Mrs H Jones

Learning Support Assistant

I love being an LSA because I get to meet lots of amazing young people!

Miss A Mcintosh

Learning Support Assistant

I will support you with new challenges and guide you through your journey at Trinity Academy. We will discover new opportunities and achieve your goals.

Mrs B Poskitt

Learning Support Assistant

I find being an LSA rewarding, it allows me to support students in the local community to overcome barriers and achieve to their full potential.

Mrs L Potts

Learning Support Assistant

I find the role of an LSA very fulfilling, I am able to work with inspiring young people and help them to achieve their goals.

My Worry list

TRINITY ACADEMY

Use the boxes below to write down any worries you may have about transitioning to a new school.

Think about these worries in 3 groups.

Worry One: "This feels like it's very difficult or impossible to do something".	Example: I worry about standing up and talking in front of a group on my own.
Worry Two: "This is hard for me to do but it isn't impossible".	Example: I worry when something changes.
Worry Three: "I have these particular worries a lot".	Example: Answering questions out loud, I may get the answer wrong.

Making friends

Moving from Primary school to Secondary school can seem a little scary, but also very exciting! You may feel a little worried about meeting new people and feel unsure about how you could make new friends. Don't worry! You are not the only one! Everyone feels very much the same. Let's have a look at some ways in which you can prepare yourself….

Tips:

- Smile
- Ask questions
- Be polite
- Join social clubs
- Be a good listener
- Share interests
- Accept that we are all different
- Be kind to others

Can you think of three interesting things about yourself? You can share this information with the new people you meet.
