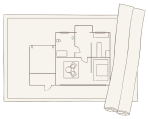
OPPORTUNITIES

Youth Voice Census is a space for young people, aged 11 to 30, across the UK to share their experiences. It is an annual temperature check on how young people in the UK feel about life, study, work and general prospects. The deadline for completion is 6th June.

Creative Mentor Network is a charity designed to break the class ceiling in the creative industries, making the creative world of work more accessible and inclusive for creatives from lower socioeconomic backgrounds. We help you fulfil your potential in the creative industries through mentoring programmes, our Jobs board, events and resources. You can read more and apply to become a mentee here.

Do you enjoy science, maths or IT? Maybe you prefer working in teams with your classmates on different creative projects? Whatever your interests are, this Career Shapers event will help you to learn how you could use your unique skills to build an exciting career. You'll also learn more about the kind of work that Deloitte does, attend skills workshops, meet volunteers and immerse yourself in their friendly, diverse community. This event takes place 27th May – 28th May 2025 (during May break). Registration will close when applications are full, so apply ASAP!



Scott Brownrigg is a collaborative international design practice specialising in architecture, masterplanning, urbanism and interior design. During May break, they are running a four day virtual work experience. You can read more and apply here. The deadline is 9th May.

To find other online work experiences taking place during the May break, you can use Springpod or SpeakersForSchools. They can help you work out if you enjoy industries that interest you AND look great on future applications.

OPPORTUNITIES

Have you ever wondered how technology is transforming how we manage money? Or why cybersecurity is so important in protecting our finances? Check out this 40 minute video from Tech She Can in collaboration with Deutsche Bank.

Lots of universities run Year 12 summer schools. Many also offer Year 10 versions too! They provide you with the opportunity to learn more about the benefits of higher education, see what university facilities are like (including student halls - where you could live!) and take part in taster lectures. Here is a list of different options currently available to apply to. If there is a particular university you're interested in, you could also search the name of the university followed by "summer school" to find their opportunities.

On the UCAS hub, you'll find lots of live sessions with employers, careers advisors and university staff. They cover topics such as "Should I use AI to write my personal statement?", "Weighing up your options: Uni? Apprenticeship? Gap Year?" and "How to find the perfect course for you".

Mental Health Awareness Week takes place from 12 - 18 May 2025. The theme this year is 'community'. To learn more, you can read this blog 'How community benefits your mental health'.

If you wondering what job roles you could do that work in, and benefit, the local community, you can see a list of potential job roles here. If you're considering a role working within mental health, here a list of roles within the NHS that you may be interested in.

If you are completely unsure what you want to do in the future, don't worry! The opportunities we share in this newsletter are there to help you consider options for your future. There is no pressure to have everything figured out. Here is a guide on how to choose a career which may have some useful suggestions.
