OPPORTUNITIES

Have you ever wondered how technology in space helps us to communicate and navigate here on Earth? Could you see themselves working in a future career using space technology? Join this webinar on Tuesday 15th July at 1.30pm, when Teacher, Zoe Hobman, will deliver a virtual 45 minute Tech We Can LIVE lesson. Zoe will highlight how technology in space can help us to communicate and navigate on Earth, including how GPS helps us in our everyday lives. She will also show some of the tech careers within communication and navigation that you could pursue in the future.

UK University Search's webinars are now available on demand. One of their most popular sessions is "meet the Russell Group". It's worth registering to be able to access the recordings of past sessions. They will also keep you updated with any new webinars.

The National Trust is launching an apprenticeships scheme for 130 young people who might not otherwise consider a career in the National Trust. Apprenticeships will be based at locations round the country and provide opportunities for a range of careers including horticulture and countryside management, as well as project management, information technology, finance and HR. Register your interest here.

If you're looking to plan university open day visits, here are some resources you can use to find dates:

- If you know what university you're interested in, you can find information on their website.
- UniTasterDays has a wide range of opportunities
- OpenDays.co.uk also collates open day dates
- UCAS also have an option to look for open day dates

This UCAS guide provides some inspiration for questions you could ask at university open days to make the most of the event.

For College and Sixth Form open evenings, you will need to look on each individual organisations website. They usually post them in September and most Sixth Forms only have one date!

If you have any questions or need support, please email CGarnett@trinityacademy.org.uk
