17 July 2026

Dear students, parents and carers,

I hope this letter finds you all well. I am writing to you to share plans for A Level and GCSE results days, which take place on Thursday 13th August and Thursday 20th August respectively.

AS/A Level Results – 13th August

Students collecting A Level results can arrive from 08:30 on Thursday 13th August, making their way through main reception to the sports hall. Once they have collected their results envelope, they will be directed to a member of staff where they will discuss their onward destination.

For Year 12 students collecting AS Level results, they can arrive from 10:00 on Thursday 13th August, making their way through main reception to the sports hall. Students receiving AS Level results will not need to meet with a member of staff.

GCSE Results – 20th August

Year 11 students collecting GCSE results, they can arrive from 09:00, making their way through main reception to the sports half. Once they have collected their results, they will be directed to a member of staff where they can discuss their onward destination, or enrol at Trinity Academy Sixth Form.

Any Sixth Form students awaiting GCSE resit results, these will be available from 10:00 on Thursday 20th August.

Year 10 students awaiting their RE GCSE result, you can collect these results from 10:00 on Thursday 20th August at main reception.

Staff will be around to support throughout the morning.

If you are unable to collect your results, please email mwalmsley@trinityacademy.org.uk for further advice.

Have a great summer!

Kind regards

Miss L Gillatt
